

DPA Requirements

The City of St. Louis Down Payment Assistance (DPA) Program provides down payment and closing cost assistance to eligible homebuyers purchasing their home in the City of St. Louis. The Community Development Administration (CDA) acts as representative for the City of St. Louis government. This program is totally or partly funded through CDA and HUD.

The Housing Partnership, Inc. is the only agency that facilitates this program. Funds are provided as a 0% interest, $0 payment loan that is forgiven after homebuyers reside in the property for 5 consecutive years as their primary residence. A prorated amount of 20% will be forgiven each year. Funds can be used for down payment and/or closing costs.

This program has many components and requires cooperation from multiple parties. As such, we require the closing date to be scheduled at least 45 days after we are first notified of the active contract.

We will send one update email per week to all parties (client, lender, real estate agent, and title company). We will communicate more frequently when the closing is less than a week away.

Some items are required to issue a pre-approval. Other items are required to issue a final approval. All items are requested at least 2 business days before closing so we have time to get our cashier’s check and documents prepared for the closing.

If you have any questions about the requirements or your responsibilities, please ask!

Overview of DPA Program

The City of St. Louis DPA program offers up to $10,000 of assistance. Total household income must be under the 80% AMI limit.

This funding is treated as a second mortgage from the City of St. Louis, MO, including the signing of a Promissory Note and Deed of Trust. The loan can drop to third position if the lender is also facilitating MHDC or another program that is required to be in second position.

	Household Size
Income Limit	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
	$57,800	$66,050	$74,300	$82,550	$89,200	$95,800	$102,400	$109,000

4. Documentation for required property inspections:
 - a. Building inspection by ASHI certified or InterNACHI certified inspector
 - b. Visual Lead Assessment: Inspection must pass. We need the inspector's letter.
 - i. This must be done by an approved inspector from our list.
 - ii. This inspection is not required if the property is built after 1978.
 - c. Occupancy Permit: Inspection must pass. We need the permit that comes after the inspector's report.
 - i. Household size cannot exceed the amount allowed on the occupancy permit.

Inspections Requirements

The Buyer and real estate agent should work together as needed for these items. Please keep us in the loop on any issues, such as a failed inspection.

Building Inspection

This must be completed by an ASHI Certified or InterNACHI Certified Inspector.

ASHI:

Find an inspector: <https://www.homeinspector.org/Find-An-Inspector/Additional-Search-Options>

Inspectors that fit the requirement will have this seal next to their name:

Please reference the link above to verify that the person doing the inspection is fully certified and not just a Member or an Associate Member working towards their certification. Even if someone has an ASHI number tied to their name, that does not mean they are properly certified.

InterNACHI:

Find an inspector: <https://www.nachi.org/certified-inspectors>

Inspectors that fit the requirement will have this seal next to their name:

Please reference the link above to verify that the person doing the inspection is InterNACHI certified.

Visual Lead Assessment

This inspection is not required if the home is built after 1978.

Overview:

This inspection must pass both the interior and exterior of the home. If the inspection fails, different steps must be taken depending if it is an interior or exterior issue.

There is minimal accepted peeling/flaking/chipping/chalking/cracking paint on the inside or outside of the home. This can include any exterior structures such as sheds or garages. Windows, doors, and basements tend to be the most common areas of concern.

We highly recommend the Buyer and real estate agent use their critical eye and look for any paint issue that might come up, address the areas that would not pass, and correct the issue before the inspector does the Visual Lead Assessment to eliminate a potential delay in closing.

This inspection must be completed by an ASHI Certified Inspector who is approved to do this inspection for the City. Not all ASHI inspectors have this special certification to do a visual lead assessment.

Approved Inspectors:

Below are the three inspectors we know who are approved to do this inspection. If you have someone else in mind, please let us know before you schedule them so we can confirm approval with the City.

All of these inspectors are at least ASHI Certified, so you could also ask them to conduct the building inspection too.

1. Aaron Mayer – ASHI Certified
 - a. Company: Housewarming Home Inspections
 - b. Phone: 314-323-7458
 - c. Email: pickhousewarming@gmail.com
 - d. Website: www.HousewarmingHomeInspections.com
2. Norm Tyler – ASHI Certified & InterNACHI Certified
 - a. Company: Sage Inspections
 - b. Phone: 314-704-6834
 - c. Email: norm@sageinspect.com
 - d. Website: www.SageInspect.com
3. John Wessling – ASHI Certified
 - a. Company: Wessling Home Inspection Services, LLC
 - b. Phone: 314-520-1103
 - c. Email: john@wesslinginspections.com
 - d. Website: www.WesslingInspections.com

If the exterior of the home fails:

The issues that originally failed can be visually re-inspected by the same original inspector who did the first Visual Lead Assessment.

If there is any old paint residue on the ground from remediating the issue, it will need to be cleaned up before the inspector arrives.

If the interior of the home fails:

The original inspector cannot be used to approve any work that was done to fix the failed areas. Instead, there must be a clearance test done via a dust wipe sampling to check the levels of lead-based paint remaining. The lab testing is done by a certified inspector who will swipe the areas where the repairs were done. The lab results must show that the lead levels are within safe parameters, typically less than 40 micrograms per dL.

The repairs must be done using lead-safe practices to increase the chances of having a passed swipe test. Before scheduling this test, make sure the Seller knows to fully clean the areas including and around the repairs. Ideally, the company doing the repairs using lead-safe practices will do this cleaning.

This is the only company we know of in the Greater St. Louis Area that can do the interior swipe testing. If you know of another company, please let us know so we can confirm it is acceptable to the City.

Sherlock's Environmental Services LLC
13728 LaConte Ct.
St. Louis, MO 63128
314-849-5819

The fees involved for the interior testing could be pricey, especially if there are many areas to test inside the home. Each swipe must be done in the area where there was an issue.

Occupancy Inspection

This is conducted by the City of St. Louis and must be scheduled by the Seller. This inspection must pass. We will need the permit issued by the City of St. Louis. Household size cannot exceed the amount allowed on the occupancy permit.

Title Company Requirements

All documents needed from the title company are listed below. These items are not required to issue a pre-approval or final approval, but they are still required for the program.

1. Title Commitment adding a policy for the City of St. Louis
 - a. Held in Fee Simple title
 - b. Name: City of St. Louis c/o CDA
 - c. Amount: $10,000
 - d. The DPA loan can be added to the title policy of the primary loan if needed.
2. ALTA settlement statement for the mortgage with the City of St. Louis
 - a. Recording fees are a flat $53.
 - b. In order for the Buyer to get the maximum benefit of this assistance, we request all fees (including the above DPA fees and your company's fees), do not exceed $300, if possible.
3. Closing Disclosure: We don't need your version of this, but it's an FYI for the DPA program:
 - a. DPA loan in Section L: City of St. Louis c/o CDA
 - b. Amount: Must use the net amount indicated by the ALTA statement created by the title company after recording fees and processing fees are subtracted out for the loan
 - c. Home Warranty: If the Buyer is paying for it, then it must be listed on the Closing Disclosure. If the Seller is paying for it, we will need their signed ALTA settlement statement at or shortly after closing.
 - d. The Buyer cannot receive a refund at closing.
